

Round Table Knights
Biography

„Round Table Knights have impressed me loads this year, not only playing the best house sets of 2009 but coming with some really original productions as well“

— Jesse Rose

Everyone is unique in his or her own way – sure. And everyone can be an artist in this era of unlimited possibilities – at least virtually.

But there is that certain something that nobody can acquire – neither with money nor with effort, that natural charisma or a certain aura.

Whatever it maybe the Round Table Knights have it and with the wind at their backs it's taken them on a ten year journey from the Swiss province to the high plateaus of contemporary dance music where they have recently pitched their tents in the camps of Mowgli's 'Deadfish' label and Jesse Rose's 'Made To Play' label in preparation for the next climb.
